

Our Association & many others are concerned over the recent FCC changes concerning faxing our members.

The association community has already raised numerous concerns about the clarity of the new regulations. It is unclear what the FCC would interpret as commercial faxes, whether written consent to a national association would extend to chapter or affiliate faxes, and whether consent would expire with membership.

We would ask that a stay be placed on these regulations until further research can be completed.